- (d) The Dzierzoniow Technical Radio Industry Enterprise (Sklady Przemyslu Radiotechnicznego w Dzierzoniow), located in Dzierzoniow /5043N-1639E/, until 1949 manufactured radio sets, but after that time produced electronic tubes for the military /details unknown/.
- (e) The New Mogila Foundry (Nowa Huta w Migilaie), located in Mogila /5004N-2005E/, was planned to be the largest one in Poland with a capacity of one million tons of steel per year, but for an unknown reason the construction of this foundry was halted in the Summer of 1951. The foundry was to be controlled directly by the Ministry of National Defense, and was to produce material for military use only.
- (f) The Wander Provisions Industry Enterprise (Sklady Przemyslu Spozywczego, Wander), located at Krakow /5005N-1955E/, was constructed prior to 1949, and until that time produced baking powder and similar products [REDACTED]. After 1950, however, this factory produced organic chemical compounds for military use /details unknown/. The factory was directly controlled by the Ministry of National Defense.
